

CHEN Fang

Lawyer

city:
Beijing

phone:
010-8287 0288

e-mail:
chenfang@baclaw.cn

Professional expertise

Securities, Finance and Insurance, Fund and Venture Capital, Foreign Business

Personal Profile

Practicing lawyer in Beijing Blossom & Credit Law Firm; a master of law graduated from Yunnan Minzu University.

Ms. CHEN Fang, an expert in company law, finance, and fund legal business, is highly praised by both the law firm and clients for her carefulness, sense of responsibility, and teamwork. She is mainly responsible for legal services for X office in Haidian District, X bureau in Hebei Province, and private funds, and permanent legal advisory services for enterprises. Ms. CHEN used to handle routine legal affairs at X Information Harbor Center; participated in the 2021 project of CSRC Beijing Office in risk investigation of the private fund industry, the project of X District, Beijing for cleaning up and rectification of peer-to-peer lending institutions, due diligence investigations of multiple funds, and several equity investment projects; took charge of the cooperation project of X Fund Town, and registration and business change of X Investment Management Co., Ltd. and several other private fund managers. She used to be a legal advisor for Beijing X Industry Development Fund, X Investment Management Co., Ltd. (Jiangsu X Guidance Fund Manager), X Investment Management Co., Ltd. (Jiangxi X Guidance Fund), X Co., Ltd., and multiple private funds.

Representative performance

- Provided routine legal services for X Information Harbor Center: assisting the General Office of X Information Harbor Center in handling routine legal support, conducting contract review, stamping, and archiving, and analyzing common issues in the process of contract review; ledger sorting; drafting legal briefs, including briefs on newly promulgated laws, regulations, ministerial rules, analyzing representative cases, and reminding for legal risks; assisting the legal personnel at the General Office of X Information Harbor Center in organizing legal seminars and reporting;
- Participated in the on-site verification of 7 trading places in operation organized by X Bureau of Hebei Province, and conducted due diligence investigation on project companies. Based on the results of on-site due diligence investigation, issued Due Diligence Investigation Report and Exchange Rectification Report to fully reveal legal issues identified in the trading places investigated and submit professional suggestions, and conducted on-site verification and issued the Due Diligence Investigation Report on Rectification after the rectification by enterprises;

- Participated in the “2021 Special Inspection & Risk Identification for Private Funds in X District” organized by CSRC Beijing Office, mainly in charge of checking private fund managers and the funds managed for the following: payment risks, financial business with related companies, loans/deposits disguised as funds, fund pools, misappropriation of fund properties, self-financing, establishment of funds beyond the size filed, fundraising beyond the amount filed, and risks of illegal fundraising, and sorting out suspected out-of-touch institutions, suspected zombie institutions, out-of-touch institutions published by the association, and unregistered institutions;
- Assisted Haidian X Office in reviewing the change approval (filing) affairs of a trading place (branch) in Haidian District, and issued Legal Opinions;
- Participated in the due diligence investigation of Beijing X Guidance Fund in the form of master-feeder funds, performed due diligence investigation on partner institutions and funds under management or establishment of X Fund, submitted special notes and compliance opinions and issued Due Diligence Report in terms of regulated operation of the manager, management team, fundraising capabilities, and fund analysis;
- Participated in due diligence investigation for equity investment by X Fund, in which the target enterprise is a national high-technology enterprise engaging in the research and development of commercial aviation power systems and industrialization of power technologies, offering products for liquid rocket engines, attitude and orbit control engines, and civil equipment; reminded the client of legal risks and provided legal advice from the perspective of professional due diligence investigation, which eventually helped complete the investment;
- Assisted X Manager in establishing the first investment fund of RMB 1.0 billion for high-end instrument and sensor industry in Beijing. With respect to this fund product implementing the mode of “Dual-GP Single Manager” , provided corresponding legal analysis and suggestions regarding the issues of state-owned wholly-owned subsidiaries serving as the GP manager and the feasibility of the dual-GP mode, and issued Legal Opinions;

- Cooperated with a litigation lawyer to represent a natural person in the dispute over economic compensation with X Co., Ltd., in which the client was under a bad mental state and high psychological pressure; worked with the litigation lawyer to enlighten the client and actively communicate with the judge to pursue legitimate rights and interests for the labor in accordance with the Labor Contract Law and the spirit of human right protection, and finally persuaded the judge to support the claims of the client and issue a civil mediation decision to protect the rights and interests of the client.