Professional expertise

Corporate litigation and non-litigation

Personal Profile

Starting her practicing career in 2020, Ms. LI Tong is a full-time lawyer at the Legal Advisor Center of Beijing Blossom & Credit Law Firm. Thanks to her solid legal knowledge, fluent English, and high professional competence, she provides clients with legal services in Chinese and English primarily in the field of permanent legal advisory services for enterprises, especially corporate litigation and non-litigation businesses, including but not limited to: civil and commercial litigation and arbitration, foreign-related commercial negotiation and handling of legal affairs, consulting on management of corporate legal risks, legal training, and other specialized legal affairs. Her areas of service mainly include litigation and non-litigation legal services in culture and entertainment, medical, construction, Internet, etc.

Ms. LI Tong' s efforts cover but are not limited to: reviewing and drafting contracts, issuing relevant legal opinions or lawyer' s opinions on external operation and internal management affairs of served entities, delivering lawyer' s letter to relevant recipients with reference to the needs and specific dispute of the served entities, providing specialized legal training services in line with the specific business of the served entities, initiating litigation/arbitration with respect to disputed matters on behalf of the served entities, and responding to litigation/arbitration. She has participated in many foreign-related, difficult, and complicated special cases in her career, and accumulated abundant practical legal experience in safeguarding the legitimate rights and interests of clients to the maximum extent.
